Porter: Break of war strategy v. Iran (conf? bluff?)
flints

conf. Feb at conf. brings, flints cover.
"no &

Col. Pat King was senior - told WP last week, "No war or no watch."
Implication:

Hate was trying to restrain Bush on in conf. 07

GWB told VCS he was thinking of strike on Iran - VCS all opposed. Told Hate they wanted
Abeyan's replacement

But none that strike

Hate is not going to strike down on Fallon's
no maintaining high level of tension w. Iran

though rising.
makes it earlier

GP still believes it's unlikely that Bush can carry out a strike v. Iran - Fallon was not any obstacle - VCS are opposed (possibly Kington is USAF, but he is not skilled Right - then

3-13-8

Fallon:

fundamental issues that may be smothered:

1. Is Fallon right that WH wants war with Iran, or is leaning toward it?
2. Is that prospect rising, - last year? ^{of CWB}
How close to 0? or, far?
3. Is Fallon right - a disaster?

Why? But testimony (on both sides?)

- Why does Fallon believe some should be removed?

Who agree with him?

What is evidence against him?

Between F and CWB - who to believe?
Petraeus?

GP sticks Follen deliberately ^{confrontation w.} pushed, Ashin by cooperating w. Bennett

He did give up on Ashin ^(?) on: flag, withdrawal troops, focusing on Afghan

What will he do now? + hope + believe he will not be like Colin Powell: he will speak out.

He's contradictory (see Petros) + his story varies,

Abeyaratne has given problem: "US should accept more from."

He ⁴ did go along with 2nd Clinton task force?
Dec 06. Follen would prob. have said NO.
But (did reject 3d)

Pres. of Follen ~~testimony~~ before SERC — perhaps a reason to resign...

Q: Did he want

GP — for faster + longer withdrawal from Iraq than Petros. Less problem as Afghan + Pakistan
(Lamb)

He did agree w. Ashin ~~on~~ that there was a "trouble-maker," but wanted to deal in a different way.
